2. Unity is the foundation of development
3. Authority must be exercised with wisdom and compassion
4. Legacy outlives position

The Prophet Muhammad (SAW) said:

"The best among you are those who are most beneficial to others."

Kabiyesi lived this truth.

To the royal family, may Allah reward your patience and strengthen you. Your father's name is written in honour in the history of Iyamoye.

To the people of Iyamoye Kingdom, let us preserve the peace Kabiyesi cherished and support all efforts that move our community forward.

To our royal fathers, religious leaders, and distinguished guests, we thank you sincerely for standing with Iyamoye Kingdom at this moment.

To the people of Iyamoye, this occasion reminds us that legacy is built on service, character, and unity. Let us continue to uphold the values Kabiyesi lived by and worked tirelessly to protect.

Prayer

We pray that Allah in His infinite mercy:

- Forgives all shortcomings of Kabiyesi
- Grants him comfort and light in his grave
- Admits him into Al-Jannah Firdaus
- Grants the royal family and the entire kingdom patience and fortitude

Conclusion

Once again, I warmly welcome you all and thank you for identifying with Iyamoye Kingdom at this significant moment. May Allah accept our prayers and reward everyone present.

May the soul of Late Oba Ibrahim Ademiluyi Momoh Amuwajoye I continue to rest in perfect peace.

A brief biography of: HRM OBA IBRAHIM ADEMINUYI MOMOH Eti, Omo Akinjobi, Amuwajoye 1, the Obaro of Iyamoye

Alhaji Ibrahim Ade Momoh was born to the home of late Momoh Masaiyetemi and Madam Rotiye Masaiyetemi of Ilaro Royal family in Aye quarters of Iyamoye in 1939. His uncle, Oba Faniyan, Gbengbe, Eka Selo, late Obaro of Iyamoye 1937 to 1946, was said to be the native doctor who guided the delivery of baby Ibrahim and gave him the name "Ademinuyi" (meaning, My Crown is honored). Ibrahim's mother also hailed from Aofin, an equal royal clan of Idofin quarters of Iyamoye. These are evidences of the full royal background of Ibrahim Ade Momoh.

EDUCATION

He attended Ansarudeen Primary School, Iyamoye from 1947 to 1952 and had to transfer to St. Andrew's Primary School Kabba to complete that level and obtained his First School Leaving Certificate from 1953 to 1954. He went further to the Muslim Modern School at Odo-Ikare in Ondo State from 1956 to 1959.

After the Modern School Education, he got appointment as Clerical Officer in the Civil Service of Northern Nigeria at Kaduna in 1959. His certificates on the Job trainings as a civil servant include:

1. Storekeeper's Certificate Course in Kaduna -1960
2. Executives Officers Course in Kano-1979- 1980

His Working Experience as a Civil Servant include:

1. Clerical Officer in Kaduna, Northern Nigeria Government - 1959-1967
2. Executive Officer in Kano State - 1967
3. Chief Executive Officer, Kano State - 1992-1993

He retired from the Kano State Civil Service as Chief Executive Officer in 1993.

COMMUNITY SERVICE INVOLVEMENT

While in Kaduna in the 60's, Young Alhaji Ibrahim was the right hand Assistant to the late Salaudeen Obatoyinbo, a community leader then who was highly respected for his humility and honored to host the regular rallying of Iyamoye Citizens around the regional capital city then.

While in Kano, Alhaji Ademinuyi, as a result of his Patriotic attitudes and charismatic leadership nature, became the Chairman Kano Branch of the Iyamoye Development Union in 1986 to 1993. During his tenure there, Kano was among the leading branches of the IDU in Nigeria.

On his retirement, Alhaji Ibrahim was selected, unopposed as Councilor to represent Iyamoye Ward in Ijumu LGA Council from 1996 to 1997. He then served as Supervisory Councilor for works.

TRADITIONAL LEADERSHIP

At the 50th year ceremony of Iyamoye's Movement to the present site in 1983, Alhaji Ibrahim was one of the first Iyamoye Indigenes to attract the Honour of a Chieftaincy title from the Late Oba Salaudeen Obatoyinbo (of blessed memory) for his service to the people. He then bagged the title, "The Otun Balogun of Iyamoye".

Who would ever think that Alhaji Ibrahim Momoh was to be the next Oba, after the reign of Oba Salaudeen?

Oba Ibrahim Momoh started the Traditional

Chieftaincy Ladder with the title of the Ologe of Iyamoye at Igemo level in the year 2000.

In early, year 2002, the great Iyamoye umbrella, Oba Salaudeen Obatoyinbo, Odundun Ahodedero joined his ancestors. Shortly after his burial, the regent and elders started the search for a new Oba. Like the time he was chosen as a counselor, the Aye quarters, Alh. Ibrahim's primary constituency, did not raise any opponent against him as candidate for Obaro elect.

Peacefully, he continued his accelerated Traditional Journey up the ladder as follows; he took,

The title of Chief Elebu of Iyamoye at Oraiwo level in February 2005

The title of Obahun of Iyamoye at Orota level in March 2005

And in May 2005, he was finally selected and ratified by the Obaro in Council and then installed as the Obaro and Paramount ruler of Iyamoye Kingdom. "KABIYESI O", Eti omo Akinjobi, Amuwajoye 1, Obaro of Iyamoye Land.

OBA IBRAHIM MOMOH AS A MEMBER OF IJUMU TRADITIONAL COUNCIL

Obaro Ibrahim Momoh was graded 3rd class among some other Obas in Ijumu Kingdom in 2006. He was appointed Regent of the Olujumu of Ijumu Kingdom from November 2014 to December 2017. During his regency, Ijumu Kingdom was not only peaceful but also united: he was able to guide the selection and installation of the substantive Olujumu of Ijumu Kingdom without rancor in the land. Oba Ibrahim Momoh was an active participant in the Ijumu Aarin District meeting of Obas and Chiefs as well as the Ijumu Aarin District Association.

He was upgraded from 3rd Class to First Class status by the Former Governor of Kogi State, Alh. Yahaya Adoza Bello in 2021. This is the best thing that has ever happened to the stool of the Obaro, and the set of a feat that will never be forgotten in the history of Iyamoye Kingdom.

OBA IBRAHIM ADE MOMOH'S OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS IN IYAMOYE

Being a cool headed, patient, accommodating and self-disciplined traditional leader, his subjects enjoyed peaceful co-existence and harmony during his reign. Religious tolerance has prevailed in the community.

In physical development and expansion, there has been an unprecedented line up of personal buildings in the community.

By facilitating the activities of the IDU and encouraging patriotic individuals, social amenities developed fast during his reign. For Instance, Scarcity of water which has been one of the major problems of the town has become a thing of the past as spirited individuals have provided motorized bore holes at almost every corner of the community.

During the Late Obaro's reign, the rate of Scholarship Awards to our children in Higher Institutions by our Illustrious Sons and Daughters has sky rocketed. Financial assistance too to boost the education of our children at primary, secondary and tertiary levels has also been very unprecedented.

Our major and minor streets have been dotted with solar street lights that were supplied by our courageous politicians and patriotic personalities.

At the onset of the restrictions brought about by COVID-19 in 2020, the fairly wealthy Iyamoye citizens in Diaspora and at home were the first in Okun land to provide palliatives, worth millions of Naira to cushion the hardship of the people at home. The prompt action by our selfless donors was a demonstration of the love they have for Oba Ibrahim Momoh who approached them for the assistance. The community has continued to support more strongly, the government projects like the General Hospital and Schools in the town. The Other Progress that Iyamoye witnessed during the reign of Oba Ibrahim Momoh include;

- i. The Ongoing process of establishing a Model Village at the outskirts of the community;
- ii. The Ongoing process of establishing a Mini Solar Grid for alternative electricity to the community;
- iii. The construction of Ultra-Modern Basic Health Centre by the National Primary Health Care Agency/Kogi State Government in Iyamoye; and
- iv. Provision of land for the construction of Iyamoye permanent Palace.

Iyamoye People have more than ever before maintained harmonious relationship with our neighboring communities.

In reaction to the incessant disturbances of Kidnappers and criminals, our local hunters have been well coordinated and made battle ready by His Royal Highness to join the Law Enforcement Agents as well as the Local Government battles against the insecurity. The community equally provided a functional vehicle to the police in Iyamoye and renovated both the Barracks and the Charge Office to enhance their performances.

As Chief Custodian of Iyamoye Culture and customs, the Oba has guided his traditional council to uphold our high moral values and tradition of fairness to every group in the community. Our Cultural heritage was highly promoted during his reign.

During his tenure, Iyamoye has accommodated many farming strangers from some troubled parts of Northern Nigeria as a measure of being our brother's keepers. This has resulted to an increase in the population of the community.

The Late Obaro of Iyamoye had always ensured unalloyed loyalty of himself and his subjects to the three tiers of Government i.e. The Federal, The State, The Local Government as well as the Traditional Council of Ijumu Kingdom. This evidenced by his regular attendances at all statutory meetings of the authorities, until his demise on the 9th of November, 2025.

He doubled as the Obaro of Iyamoye as well as Head of Ilaro Royal Family. Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi Momoh was happily married and blessed with good children.

TRIBUTE FROM IYAMOYE DEVELOPMENT UNION, NATIONAL SECRETARIAT IN HONOUR AND CELEBRATION OF OUR LATE MONARCH HIS ROYAL MAJESTY OBA
 IBRAHIM ADEMINUYI MOMOH (AMUWAJOYE I) THE OBARO OF IYAMOYE KINGDOM

With profound reverence, deep gratitude to the Almighty God, and hearts laden with solemn honour, Iyamoye Development Union pays this glowing tribute to our revered monarch, a royal father whose life was a luminous tapestry of service, unity, wisdom, and progressive leadership.

Our late King was not merely a custodian of the throne; he was the living conscience of Iyamoye Community, a bridge between tradition and modernity, and a tireless advocate for peace and collective advancement. He reigned with uncommon humility, listening ears, and a compassionate heart, ensuring that every voice, young and old, near and far found recognition and respect within the palace of justice.

Throughout his reign, he stood as a unifying force, knitting together diverse interests with patience and fairness. In times of calm and in moments of challenge, he embodied balance and restraint, choosing dialogue over discord and consensus over coercion. Under his watch, harmony flourished, communal bonds were strengthened, and the dignity of our heritage was elevated.

Kabiyesi's commitment to progress was unwavering. He championed development initiatives, encouraged education and enterprise, and opened pathways for innovation while safeguarding the sanctity of our customs. He inspires a generation to believe in the power of purposeful leadership.

As a moral compass, he upheld integrity as the crown jewel of authority. His life of service taught us that true royalty lies not in regalia, but in responsibility; not in power, but in principled stewardship. He was a father to the people, a counselor to leaders, and a symbol of hope to all who sought fairness and opportunity.

Today, as he joins his noble ancestors, we celebrate a life well-lived and a legacy firmly etched in the hearts of all Iyamoyean.

Though the throne mourns, his ideals endure. His works speak, his values guide, and his memory commands our commitment to unity, peace, and progress.

May his gentle soul find eternal rest, and may his legacy continue to illuminate our path as a people bound by honour, strengthened by unity, and propelled by progress.

Kabiyesi sun re o. Your reign endures in our deeds; your legacy lives forever.

TRIBUTE TO A GREAT MONARCH OF OUR GENERATION, LATE
 HRM. OBA IBRAHIM MOMOH ADEMINUYI (OHE), (AMUWAJOYE I),
 THE OBARO OF IYAMOYE KINGDOM.

Alhaji Ibrahim Momoh Ademinuyi, the late Obaro of Iyamoye kingdom.

I had of the very sad, heart-breaking news of his majesty demise with rude shock on the 9th November, 2025. It happened with a bang on all of us.

His majesty was not just a ruler; he was a statesman, a fearless advocate for justice, and a guardian of our cherished traditions. His reign ushered in an era of unity, prosperity, and cultural prominence, a testament to his visionary leadership. More than a king, he was a father to all, a beacon of hope and a pillar of stability whose words carried weight and whose heart was accessible.

His dedication to cultural preservation and community well-being has left an enduring mark on all of us. His style of leadership brought about several projects into the community, like the construction of the first Iyamoye township hall, construction of police barracks, construction of divisional headquarters of NSCDC which are all functioning well as at today and of course the elevation of the stool of the Obaro of Iyamoye from 3rd class to enviable 1st class status to mention but a few.

His appreciative attitude was openly displayed when he bestowed the chieftaincy title of "YEYE ATUNLUSI" of Iyamoye kingdom on my beloved mother, Chief (Mrs.) Beatrice Aderewa Mobolurunduro. And of course, the enviable "OTUNBA & YHBE OTUNBA" of Iyamoye kingdom on myself and my beloved wife to order to appreciate our contributions to the development of our community. He was never an ingrate.

Though he is no longer with us in body, his spirit lives on in us, our people and in the heart of every tradition he cherished.

Tillayo and I pray that may the soul of our revered KABIYESI continue to rest in peace.

The Oba of Iyamoye Kingdom

THE IYAMOYE ICON: TRIBUTE TO A FALLEN LEADER OBA IBRAHIM ADEMINUYI, AMUWAJOYE I OF IYAMOYE KINGDOM

On behalf of the leadership and the entire members of the IDU Lagos Branch, we mourn with deep sorrow the sudden transition of His Royal Majesty, Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi, the Amuwajoye I of Iyamoye Kingdom, has left an irreplaceable void in the hearts of the people of Iyamoye, Ijumu Kingdom, and all who encountered his remarkable leadership. His passing marks the end of an era defined by peace, wisdom, humility, and selfless service to humanity.

Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi was more than a traditional ruler; he was a symbol of unity and moral authority. Peace-loving by nature, calm in temperament, and compassionate in leadership, Kabiyesi embodied the true essence of kingship. His reign was anchored on dialogue rather than division, understanding rather than conflict, and love rather than force. These rare virtues distinguished him as a father to all, irrespective of status or background.

Within the council of Obas in Ijumu Kingdom, the Amuwajoye I stood tall as a beacon of community pride. His voice carried weight not because of power, but because of wisdom. He possessed an exceptional gift for conflict resolution, often restoring harmony where discord once thrived. His counsel was marked by depth, patience, and fairness, qualities that earned him widespread respect across communities.

Despite his royal status, Oba Ibrahim lived a modest life, deeply rooted in humility and service. He was a philanthropist at heart, always willing to extend a helping hand to the needy and to promote the collective good of his people. His generosity was quiet but impactful, his leadership firm yet humane.

As Iyamoye mourns the loss of a revered monarch, it also celebrates a life well lived and a legacy firmly etched in peace and love. The values Kabiyesi stood for unity, compassion, and selfless leadership will continue to guide the community he so dearly cherished.

We pray that Almighty God (Allah SWT) grants the late Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi Aljanatu Fridaus and eternal rest. May God also comfort the royal family, strengthen the people of Iyamoye community, and grant them the fortitude to bear this great loss. Though the crown may rest, the legacy of the Amuwajoye I lives on immortal in the hearts of the people and enduring in the history of Iyamoye Kingdom.

Adieu Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi! May your soul continue to rest in peace.

TRIBUTE TO MY LATE FATHER HRM OBA IBRAHIM ADE MOMOH

Bismillāh-Rahmān-Rahīm

*In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful
My Father, My King, My Life's Greatest Lesson*

MToday, I write with a heart torn between honour and heartbreak. I write not only as a prince of the royal household, but as a son whose world was shaped, disciplined, and secured by the presence of an extraordinary father. Losing you has left a silence that no title can fill, yet your voice lives on in my conscience, guiding my every step.

To the world, you were His Royal Majesty, Oba Ibrahim Ade Momoh, The Amuwajoye I, Obaro of Iyamoye—a king whose reign carried dignity, wisdom, and restraint. To me, you were Baba—my shield, my instructor, my mirror of manhood. You were the first standard by which I learned what it means to lead, to endure, and to serve.

A FATHER-SON BOND FORGED IN DISCIPLINE AND LOVE

As your first son and first child, I walked closest to your footsteps. I saw your strength before I understood power. I felt your discipline before I understood responsibility. You raised me with firm hands and a compassionate heart, teaching me that privilege without character is a burden, and authority without humility is failure.

THE KING WHO CARRIED HISTORY WITH GRACE

When you ascended the sacred throne of Iyamoye, you inherited more than royal beads and a palace. You inherited the souls of a people, the voice of ancestors, and the trust of generations unborn. You understood that the Obaro's crown is not a symbol of power, but a covenant of service.

Under your reign, the ancient stool of Iyamoye stood firm in unity and peace. You preserved tradition without arrogance and embraced progress without betrayal of culture. The palace became a sanctuary of justice, reconciliation, and truth. Elders were honoured, youths were guided, and the vulnerable were protected.

You ruled not by intimidation, but by moral authority. Your calm presence settled disputes. Your wisdom healed divisions. Your fairness commanded respect beyond borders. You were a king whose strength lay in restraint, whose greatness lay in service.

A LIFE, ROOTED IN FAITH AND SACRIFICE

Your life was deeply anchored in Islam. You walked this earth knowing that kingship is temporary and accountability before Allah is eternal. You prayed with humility, judged with fairness, and forgave with sincerity. Many nights you carried the worries of your people alone, placing them before Allah in silent supplication.

A SON'S LAMENT

Baba, my
The throne feels heavier today,
Because your footsteps were firm,
You stood like an iron.
Sheltering many from storms you never spoke of.

Your voice was calm,
Yet it commanded destinies,
Your silence was deep,
Yet it laughed louder than words.

You have returned to your Lord,
Leaving your values as my inheritance.

MY ETERNAL TESTIMONY AS YOUR SON

Father, your departure has changed the meaning of strength for me. Strength now means standing when you are no longer beside me. It means choosing wisdom when anger calls. It means protecting unity just as you did.

As your first son, I carry your name with reverence and your legacy with responsibility. I pray that my life will reflect the values you lived—justice, humility, faith, and service. Though I no longer walk behind,

TRIBUTE TO LATE HRM OBA IBRAHIM ADE MOMOH THE AMUWAJOYE I, OBARO OF IYAMOYE

*Bismillāhir-Rahmānir-Rahīm
In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.*

My Father. My King. My Eternal Pride.

Today, I write not only with ink, but with tears; not only with words, but with a soul kneeling in gratitude and grief. This tribute is a prayer, a poem, and a testimony—offered by a daughter whose life was shaped by the love, discipline, and legacy of a great man.

To the world, you were His Royal Majesty, Oba Ibrahim Ade Momoh, The Amuwajoye I, Obaro of Iyamoye—a monarch robed in history and honor. To me, you were simply Daddy—my first teacher, my quiet protector, my lifelong compass. In you, royalty met humility; in you, authority bowed to compassion.

A KING ROOTED IN HISTORY

You ascended the revered throne of Iyamoye at a defining moment in our history, inheriting not only a crown, but centuries of culture, tradition, and sacred responsibility. You ruled with the consciousness that a king is first a servant—answerable to his people, his ancestors, and above all, to Allah.

Under your reign, the ancient stool of the Obaro was strengthened with wisdom and restraint. You preserved the customs of our forefathers while opening your heart to progress and unity. You were a custodian of culture, a reconciler in times of conflict, and a father-figure whose palace doors never closed against the distressed.

BY HIS FIRST DAUGHTER,

THE MAN BEHIND THE CROWN

Behind the beaded crown lived a gentle soul. A man whose strength was quiet, whose discipline was firm, and whose love was deep. As a father, you taught by example more than by command. You showed us that dignity is not loud, wealth is not pride, and leadership is meaningless without empathy.

Daddy, you raised me to know that a woman's worth is anchored in self-respect, faith, and service. You prepared me for life not with indulgence, but with wisdom—and for that, I am eternally grateful.

A POEM OF FAREWELL

O Baba mi,
Iyamoye's moon has set,
But the light you lit still guides our nights.
The Iroko has fallen,
Yet its roots hold the earth together.
You spoke softly,
Yet your words reshaped destinies.
You walked gently,
Yet your footsteps echo through history.
Sleep, noble king.
Rest, faithful servant of Allah.
The crown returns to dust,
But legacy ascends to eternity.

TRIBUTE TO MY PRECIOUS FATHER

Your departure feels like a sunset that came too soon—leaving the sky heavy with memories and unspoken words. Iyamoye mourns today, not just because a king has joined his ancestors, but because a father to all has returned to his Lord.

As your first daughter, I stand between sorrow and gratitude. Grateful for the honor of bearing your name. Grateful for the values you instilled. Grateful for the privilege of witnessing greatness not from afar, but from the warmth of home.

May Allah forgive your shortcomings, reward your sacrifices, and grant you Al-Jannah Firdaus. May your grave be illuminated with light, and may your legacy continue to speak where you're.

A FATHER IN ROYAL ROBES

THE UNFORGETTABLE LOVE OF LATE HRM OBA IBRAHIM ADE MOMOH

Written by Prince Muhammed Shuaibu in Loving Memory of My Royal Father.

When I look back on my life's journey, I see a path illuminated by grace — a grace that wore a crown, spoke with gentleness, and loved with the heart of a father. That grace was embodied in His Royal Majesty, Oba Ibrahim Ade Momoh, the Obaro of Ife Kingdom.

In November 2004, I lost my biological father his beloved junior brother who was a Police officer before his demise. I was only seven years old. My world went silent that day. The laughter of childhood faded, and I felt the cold wind of loss before I could even understand what death truly meant. In that darkness, when the world felt so distant and uncertain, HRM OBA IBRAHIM ADE MOMOH stepped in, not as a king upon a throne, but as a father whose heart overflowed with love.

He took me under his wings without hesitation. Sponsor my education from primary 3 in model school Iyamoye till my HND final year in Kaduna polytechnic in 2022. He comforted me, carried my burdens, and made a solemn vow not in words alone, but in consistent action, that I would never be left to wander alone throughout my education. Every school term, every challenge, every dream I whispered he was there as a hero alongside with my grand mother late Aina Aronimo (Nee Adewumi Okeagbo).

Kabiyesi became the pillar that held my fragile world together. He provided not just funds, but fatherly guidance. He showed me discipline with tenderness, wisdom with warmth, and generosity with humility. He wanted the best for me, and he worked quietly to make sure I reached it.

He often reminded me, Your future must not die because your father is gone. Those words became my anchor, especially in moments of struggle. Whenever I felt weary, I could feel his strength pushing me forward. He was there in the background of my victories, smiling with pride. He was there in my failures, lifting me with encouragement. He never demanded anything in return, only that I remain focused, humble, and true to my purpose.

Kabiyesi's love was not ordinary. It was sacrificial, the kind of love that bends the rules of royalty to embrace humanity. Even while sitting on the throne, he never forgot his family. He made himself accessible, approachable, and deeply human. His palace was not a fortress of power; it was a home of compassion.

The very first day I clock 18yrs, he sent to me and said Muhammed enter the vehicle let reach our grandfather land in freetown... He took me to freetown and handover my father portion of land to me and said, at from today, this land belong to your father and your father is no more, this land now belong to you. Same day, he handover all my father property in his care to me and said now u have clock 18yrs. The decision is now left to you, please manage these properties well.

He told all his children, see Muhammed is your brother, you must love him, care for him and stand with him... As a responsible child that Kabiesi has, everyone of them stood by me too and never let me down. They also support my education, care for me and carry me along as a true son of their father. This indeed shows how kabiesi rooted me in to his own children and never let me experience the pain of not having a father.

Today, I stand as living testimony to his goodness. Whatever I am, and whatever Inna lillahi wa inna ilaihi rajiun.

We knew the day would come because nobody has ever been here forever. Every soul must taste death. (Quran 3:185) Every living being has an appointment with death, however highly or lowly placed. Kabiyesi, our beloved long-reigning monarch was mortal and had to end his sojourn the way of all living things. Because we are human, we are telling ourselves it was unexpected even though some would say he was advanced in age having crossed the age of 80.

His reign was long and eventful. He oversaw the growth of Iyamoye. He was progressive in his thinking and ideas. He was humble. He was peace-loving. These qualities endeared him to many. May Allah overlook his shortcomings and grant him Al-jannah firdaus. Long live Iyamoye.

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE OBARO OF IYAMOYE KINGDOM HIS ROYAL MAJESTY, OBA IBRAHIM MOMOH

I write this tribute with deep gratitude to God for a life well lived and with a heavy heart for the great loss we have suffered.

I first met His Royal Majesty, Oba Ibrahim Momoh, in 1999 during my Industrial Training at Borini Prono Construction Company. At the time, he was a contractor entrusted with a portion of a drainage construction project. By professional assignment, I was privileged to carry out soil compaction and California Bearing Ratio (CBR) tests on his section of the work. Even then, I observed his commitment to quality, diligence, and integrity—qualities that defined his life and leadership.

In 2005, he ascended the throne as the Obaaro of Iyamoye Kingdom, a calling he embraced with humility and a deep sense of responsibility. By divine arrangement, in 2006, I became his son-in-law through marriage to his second daughter.

For 19 years, I related with His Royal Majesty not just as a king, but as a father-fondly called Daddy by me and Grandpa by my children. He was a peaceful, calm, loving, and God-fearing man, religiously tolerant, fair, and never biased in his dealings. His wisdom, patience, and gentle strength endeared him to all who came in contact with him.

"He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

This truly reflects the life and reign of His Royal Majesty.

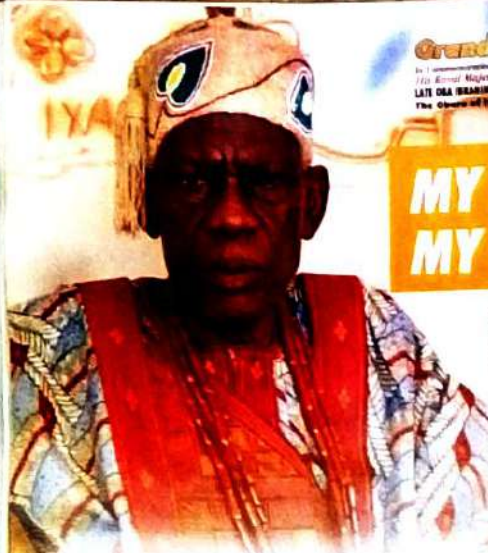

May the peace, unity, and stability that characterized the reign of Oba Ibrahim Momoh continue in Iyamoye Kingdom. May God grant wisdom to those who will lead after him, prosper the land, and preserve the legacy of fairness, love, and harmony he established. May the Almighty comfort the royal family, the chiefs, and the entire people of Iyamoye.

Indeed, we have lost a real gem, but his legacy will remain indelible in our hearts and in the history of Iyamoye Kingdom.

good character, as Allah says: "Indeed, the most honorable of you in the sight of Allah is the most righteous among you."

To me, he was more than a king — he was my anchor in storms, my encouragement in moments of doubt, and my pride in times of achievement. Even in silence, his presence spoke strength. Even in trials, his faith never wavered. He accepted Allah's decree (qada' wa qadar) with contentment, teaching us that every test carries divine wisdom.

In the Name of Allah, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate. Alhamdulillah Rabbil 'Alamin. To Allah we belong, and to Him we shall all return. Innalāhi wa innā ilayhi rāji'un.

Today, with a heart full of gratitude to Allah and eyes heavy with tears, I write this tribute to my BAAMI (OPEMI), my shield, my mentor, and my strongest pillar — His Royal Majesty, Oba Ibrahim Ade Momoh, The Amuwajoye I, Obaro of Iyamoye. Aking by birth, by character, and by divine decree; a father whose life was a living sermon of faith, discipline, humility, and service.

Babami was not only the crown that adorned the throne of Iyamoye; he was the backbone that upheld our family and the conscience that guided our community. Allah, in His infinite wisdom, blessed him with authority, yet He adorned that authority with mercy (rahmah), wisdom (hikmah), and justice ('adl). He ruled with fear of Allah (taqwā), always mindful that leadership is an amanah for which every soul shall give account on the Day of Judgment.

As a father, he was my first teacher, my silent guardian, and my constant prayer warrior.

He taught me, not merely with words, but through actions grounded in Islam. From him, I learned patience (ṣabr) in hardship, gratitude (shukr) in abundance, and complete reliance on Allah (tawakkul) in all affairs. He reminded us that honor does not lie in titles alone, but in righteousness and Today, though my heart aches at his departure, I find comfort in the promise of Allah. Death is not the end, but a transition. I pray that Allah forgives his shortcomings, expands his grave with light (nūr), grants him the companionship of the righteous, and admits him into Jannatul Firdaus. Allāhumma ḡfir lahu warḡamhu, wa 'āfhi wa'fu 'anhu, waj'al qabrahu rawḡatan min riyaḍil jannah.

Ya Allah, reward him for every life he touched, every conflict he resolved, every prayer he offered, and every sacrifice he made. Make his good deeds weigh heavy on his scale (mizān) and make his legacy a continuous charity (ṣadaqah jāriyah) that benefits him until the Last Day.

Babami, you have returned to your Creator, and we submit to His will. You lived a life of honor, faith, and service. Your footsteps remain etched in our hearts, and your prayers continue to guide us. Though the throne may feel empty, your values remain alive.

Rest in perfect peace, my father, my king, my strongest pillar.

May Allah reunite us in Al-Jannah. Āmin.

A GLORIOUS TRIBUTE FROM ONA QUARTERS OF IYAMOYE

With deep humility and profound admiration, we, the people of Ona Quarters of Iyamoye, pay this tribute to His Royal Majesty, the late Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi Momoh, the Obaro of Iyamoye Kingdom, our noble royal father, a guiding traditional mentor, and a rare embodiment of peace, fairness, and truth.

From Ona Ward, the ancestral home of your grandmother, we mourn your sudden transition with hearts weighed down by grief. We have lost not just a king, but a priceless son of royal valour, calm in disposition, dignified in conduct, yet resolute and courageous in leadership.

Your life was a living bridge that connected every quarter of Iyamoye. With pride and affection, you often recounted your deep ancestral roots across the land.

Your father, Pa Moroh Masaiyetemi, hailed from Ilaro, Aye, and Otun Quarters.

Your mother, Mama Rotye Masaryetemi, was from Aofin Idofin in Ohi Quarters. Your grandmother, Mama Dojinsola, belonged to the Ayinoko family of Oke Aro in Ona Quarters.

Your paternal mother traced her lineage to the Omodun family of Ihalu Quarters. Indeed, one is left to wonder where in Iyamoye you were not kin. This deep-rooted connection explains why your passing has left no corner of the community untouched by sorrow.

Though life is fleeting, like the tide that ebbs or the market that rises and falls, your journey was one of purpose and triumph. Truly, you came, you saw, and you conquered. The exceptional honour you brought to the Obaro stool, attaining what is widely regarded as a First-Class reign, stands as an unprecedented milestone in the annals of Iyamoye history.

The developmental strides achieved during your reign remain indelible marks, golden imprints carved upon the rock of time. You laboured selflessly to preserve our culture and traditions, while steadfastly promoting peace, security, and communal harmony, right up to your final breath. Your legacy will continue to inspire generations yet unborn.

May the Almighty God, in His infinite mercy, grant you eternal rest in Aljannah Firdaus, and may your noble soul find perfect peace. Amen.

His Royal Majesty, Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi Momoh Etì Omò Akinjabi, Omoti Baba, Ose Meleye Agba Forever remembered. Forever honoured.

ROYAL MEMORIAL TRIBUTE OBA OPAMO

Kabiyesi, His Royal Majesty, Oba Alayeluwa Obalbrahim Ademinuyi Momoh, The Obaro of Iyamoye
"Etì omò akin jobi,
Omò tì baba,
Omò oga metan ilaro,
Omò ajoka hule ahon jagbala hode,
Ose meleye agba"

Anoble son of the soil and a distinguished member of the Oyeniyi Hall of Fame, the late Obaro of Iyamoye stood as the crown upon our heads and the royal umbrella over our land. He was the gentle cloud that tempered the scorching sun upon Iyamoye and the living symbol of our culture, heritage, and ancestral tradition.

Your sudden transition shook the very foundation of our community, leaving hearts heavy with sorrow and minds searching for meaning. Yet, in humble submission to divine decree, we take refuge in the sacred words, Inna lillahi wa inna ilayhi rajiun. To Allah we belong and unto Him we shall return. In this truth, we give thanks to Almighty God for a life of purpose and honour.

Your final royal duty, the reconciliation of the chiefs in your quarters on Sunday, 9th November 2025, stands as a profound symbol of your reign. That singular act captured the spirit of your twenty years and eight months on the throne, a reign distinguished by peace, unity, wisdom, and justice.

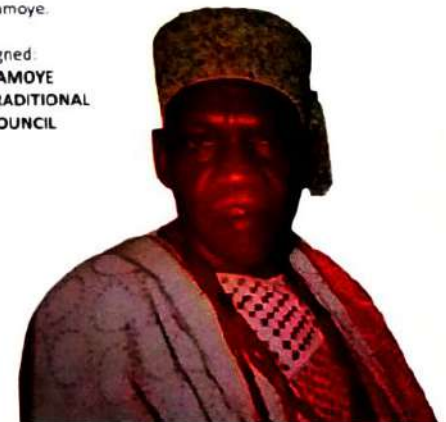

Under your benevolent leadership, Iyamoye witnessed remarkable transformation. The Basic Health Centre rose to the status of a General Hospital. GSS Iyamoye was elevated to a Government Science Secondary School. Educational opportunities expanded with the growth of primary and secondary schools across the community. Land was graciously donated for the construction of a permanent Iyamoye Palace. The community experienced visible growth through expanded settlements and new homes. Access to clean water was strengthened through the provision of numerous boreholes. Above all, the stool of the Obaro of Iyamoye attained First Class status, a historic elevation that brought lasting honor to Iyamoye and for which the people remain deeply grateful to the Government of Kogi State and to you, Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi Momoh.

For these achievements and countless others, Iyamoye will forever remember you. Your reign was adorned with rare virtues, simplicity, fairness, patience, tolerance, kindness, a spirit of accommodation, responsibility, and unwavering integrity. These qualities endure as indelible legacies and noble standards in the history of traditional rulership in the Iyamoye Kingdom. May Almighty God receive you into Aljannah Firdaus and grant His protection and blessings upon your children, your extended family, the Iyamoye Traditional Council, the entire Iyamoye community, the Ijumu Traditional Council, and the whole of Ijumu Local Government Area. Amen.

With pride and gratitude, we shall continue to walk the path you laid, guided by your enduring legacies toward peace, unity, and lasting progress for the people of Iyamoye.

TRIBUTE FROM ILARO FAMILY

Ilaro family had been thrown into deep mourning since our Late Kabiesi Oba Ibrahim Ademiluyi Momoh went to join his ancestors suddenly without bidding us good bye. He was not only the paramount ruler of Iyamoye but also the head of Ilaro Family. What a double tragedy for the family! His demise was sudden and devastating.

I recall vividly that the Late monarch still carried out a landmark reconciliatory assignment between the Obajemu of Iyamoye and some Aaye chiefs on the fateful day he departed this sinful world for the great beyond. A day before this, the family had its yearly harvest fiesta that had to be celebrated in a low key due to the sudden death of Alhaji Abdul Ganiyu Obatoyinbo. The late monarch was one of the earliest arrivals at the event. Unknown to us, that would be the last time he would celebrate with us. He rarely missed any of the family's monthly meetings and other engagement in spite of his tight schedule.

His life was exemplary, and his love for all and sundry was pure. Indeed, his heart was golden. He was kind, humble, and hospitable. He carried out his royal duties with dignity, simplicity, candour and humane posture that everyone around him could feel. He ensured harmonious coexistence of indigenes and settlers and he administered local justice with fairness and humility.

Though you have gone to join your ancestors, we are proud of your achievements, your record-breaking promotion from a Third class monarch to a First class Traditional ruler in Kogi State is significant and a recognition by government of your sterling qualities. No doubt you remain our raw GOLD that shall ever be cherished.

Adieu. Eti omo akinjobi. Omo oga meta lilaro. Omo ajoko hule a hon jagbala hode. Omo ti baba anemu kagbo kirikin. Okete somi sibusabu. Ope mugbogbo ara sewo.

TRIBUTE FROM OTUN QUARTER

This is the sad end of the journey of royalty. What a painful loss! Our revered father had suddenly gone to join his ancestors at the time when we still need his wisdom, love, compassion, and peaceful reign. The late Kabiesi ensured peaceful coexistence amongst his people and even settlers. It is on record that his era witnessed a large influx of people mainly from the Middle belt of the country who were forced to migrate to our community due to internal strife and banditry. Our monarch graciously integrated them peacefully.

The late Kabiesi through the Obajemu ensured that the 6 families in Otun quarter live together in peace. He was humble, compassionate, and had listening ears all the time. Despite the huge demand of his office, he still created time to assist the Obajemu to broker peace in Otun at critical times.

In his wisdom and to maintain equity, the late

Kabiesi ensured that Odoya was split into two, i.e. Otun and Ihalu to be at par with Okeya, which had earlier been split into Ona and Ohi.

The Obajemu, the chiefs, and the entire people of Otun deeply mourn the transition of our monarch to the great beyond. Our heartfelt condolences go to his immediate family, Ilaro, and Iyamoye at large.

TRIBUTE IN MEMORY OF OUR LATE MONARCH LATE IBRAHIM ADEMINUYI MOMOH (AMUWAJOYE 1) IYAMOYE KINGDOM From MOYE CLUB 789

Abrupt end of an era!

MOYE Club members were completely thrown off balance and devastated with the sad news that our revered monarch had gone to join his ancestors at the time when we still need his wisdom, counselling, and purposeful leadership. We were yet to recover from the sudden and shocking loss of one of our members and a strong pillar in the community. Alhaji Abdul Ganiyu Obatoyinbo when death cruelly snatched our dear Kabiesi.

He was humble and simplicity personified. He was loved by his people. He was very generous, humorous, a patient listener, tolerant and very accommodating. It is on record that during his era, the community enjoyed unparalleled religious tolerance, peaceful coexistence, provision of pipe-borne water as well as scholarship award for students in tertiary institutions through one of our illustrious son. The stool of Kabiesi of Iyamoye became upgraded to a First class status during his reign. Even without light from the National grid, the community is lit everywhere in the night through the provision of solar light facilitated by Iyamoye Development Union during his golden era.

In view of his sterling leadership qualities and administrative acumen, the late Kabiesi was appointed regent of Ijumu Kingdom from November 2014 to December 2017 and Ijumu Kingdom witnessed peace and socio-economic development to the admiration of the government in power. He also supervised without bias the process leading to the selection and eventual installation of the Olujumu. He never allowed personal ambition to either derail or delay the process.

Though gone to the great beyond to join his ancestors, he would remain fresh in our minds. Our heartfelt condolences to the Regent, the traditional council, and the entire people of Iyamoye.

AKU IDOFIN WILL FOREVER REMEMBER THE EMBODIMENT OF HUMILITY AND SIMPLICITY

The thick blood of unification between Aku Idofin and the departed Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi Momoh is so strong that we qualify as frontline celebrants of his glorious life.

Indeed our pride in him wears the garment of two historic factors that tie us together: he was our Omo'ya given that his mother (Madam Rotiye Aluko) was our daughter from Idile Aluko in Aofin where she shared the same father with Bello. Specifically in terms of sequence, Obaro Momoh was the 5th of Aluko's grandchildren. Furthermore, he became our in-law married our daughter (Madam Bose Ibrahim Nee Ajiboye) from Ebi Odesa, as his first wife, who subsequently bore both male and female children for him.

This strong blood connection network served consistently as fuel for mutual understanding and cooperation throughout his reign, to the benefit of Iyamoye Community as a whole. Hence, his memory will remain in our minds for as long as Idofin exists, which is eternal.

Oba Ademinuyi, Omo'ya and In-Law to Idofin, has gone to the other world of the invisible, may his memory assume a sweet recollection among us, for ever.

Sun're n o. Ademinuyi, a man who shared the positive elements of the typical Omoluwabi temperament, which manifested in his combined simplicity, humility, and Godliness. Orun ree!!

TRIBUTE TO AN EXEMPLARY KING

Kabiyesi Oba Ibrahim Ade Momoh was an exemplary gentleman whom our the Sheidus had known all our lives as our uncle in kano then long before he ascended the throne and his house in kano was our residence whenever we were in kano. And such was his nature that he always gave up his personal room for us whenever we transited through Kano our went to visit and he was extremely close to our late dad to whom he was his confidant and chief ally of Alhaji Ahmadu Sheidu

He was quiet soft spoken, intelligent, meticulous and a firm believer and practitioner of the Islamic faith. His simplicity and no airs presented him with the perfect picture of Grace and Humility, and it was no wonder that when he became the father of all Iyamoyeans these features were the hallmark of his reign as he never wielded the big stick but rather pursued conciliation, compromise and mediation in resolving issues brought before him with such a fatherly touch that commanded the respect and obedience of all his subjects. We have indeed lost our second father and Iyamoye has lost his King and father figure. We pray his soul continues to rest in the bosom of Allah in Aljannah firdaus and Allah grant the entire Iyamoye the fortitude to bear his irreparable loss. Amin

TRIBUTE TO HRM, LATE OBARO IBRAHIM ADE MOMOH, AMUWAJOYE I THE OBARO OF IYAMOYE KINGDOM

BY CHIEF JAMES O. DANIEL AND FAMILY

I was the legendary William Shakespeare that once opined that 'of all the wonders that I have heard, It seems to me most strange that men should fear. Seeing death, a necessary end, Will come when it will come' and to date, death comes with a lot of drama and divergent stories, each at a time we least expect it and with disbeliefs.

My earliest association with the late Obaro Ibrahim Momoh was as a young boy back to 1953 or thereabout when I used to follow him to keep his company and that of Papa Ibrahim Maliki, the current Obajemu of Iyamoye on their way to the farm called "ABEPE", where my maternal uncle Papa Michael Olayic from Okcaro had a farm.

Prior to his ascending the throne of his fathers as a Monarch, we encountered each other again in Kano, where his house on Kano Road became a rendezvous for all Iyamoye sons and daughters. Oba Ibrahim was a jolly good fellow, cool, quiet and functional. He was an individual who loves everyone and gets along effortlessly with all. With late AIG Ahmadu Sheidu, and to the glory of God, I played some major role in getting him installed as the Obaro of Iyamoye Kingdom, and if you ask me, I will say we did not make a mistake in choosing him and have no regrets.

I therefore give praise to God Almighty that guided him through the thick and thin of his reign, which could be described as successful, though sometime turbulent and tumultuous, but he surmounted it all by doing his best. He was kind hearted with a forgiving spirit, sticking to the stoic acceptance of fate which Caesar advocated. He was patient, tolerant, and peace loving, voting for peace and goodness always. All said and done, Oba Ibrahim Momoh left Iyamoye in a better state than he met it. Despite our age difference, he took me for a friend and would accord me a visit every Christmas day in spite of his usually busy schedule on Christmas day. We will miss his Christmas wishes and the honour and privileges that accompany knowing him and having his ears.

Kabiyesi, your reign was defined by wisdom, patience and "iwa pele". You ruled with fairness and humility, guided by the customs of our ancestors and a profound sense of responsibility to both the throne and the people. Under your leadership, the palace stood as a sanctuary of justice, unity and cultural pride.

As the custodian of our Yoruba heritage, you preserved our traditions with dignity and ensured that the sacred institutions of our forefathers were upheld. You were a father to the kingdom, a counselor to the chiefs, and a moral compass to the younger generation. Truly, "iwa l'ewa," and your character adorned the crown you wore with honour.

Though you have joined the ancestors, your deeds continue to speak to the need to stand in oneness as descendants of same mother and father. The peace you nurtured, the values you upheld, and the unity you strengthened shall endure as your lasting testament. Your name will be remembered with respect in the palace, in the community, and in the annals of our history.

Adieu, Kabiyesi, Ibrahim Momoh, Amuwajoye I.

TRIBUTE TO LATE OBARO OF IYAMOYE HRM, OBA IBRAHIM ADEMINUYI MOMOH, AMUWAJOYE I

It is with a deep sense of loss we mourn the transition of the Late Obaro of Iyamoye, His Royal Majesty Oba Ibrahim Ademinuyi Momoh. I was privileged to interact closely with him and his Family since I was 10 years old.

He was then working in the Ministry of Works, the same Ministry with my late Uncle whom I was staying with in Kaduna. He was a kind man who displayed a lot of warmth and friendliness to us then. His ascension to the throne drew me closer to him and he displayed his usual kindness to me, my wife and my late Mother. Oftentimes, during important occasions like the Eid Celebrations, Kabiyesi will make a vehicle available to enable my late Mum who had crippling arthritis attend the Eid Prayers.

Kabiyesi was very easy going and no doubt a considerate Leader. I am aware he took the welfare of his subjects a matter close to his heart. His unparalleled humility and congenial disposition are attributes commonly seen when conducting affairs of ruling the Community. We thank Almighty Allah for the 20 years of his glorious reign. I believe Iyamoye has lost a true committed and dedicated Leader, a man of Peace and a great Father to all. May the Almighty Allah grant him Aljanah Firdaus Ameen. TRIBUTE TO OUR LATE MONARCH HRM, ALHAJI IBRAHIM ADE MOMOH (THE AMUWAJOYE I), THE OBARO OF IYAMOYE

Ekun of Good people of Iyamoye, friends from neighboring villages and far away, I join you today with a heavy heart to honor our departed royal father, His Royal Majesty, Alhaji Ibrahim Ade Momoh (The Amuwajoye I), the Obaro of Iyamoye, who went home to be with his forefathers on 9th November 2025.

As an indigene of Iyamoye, this loss is deeply personal. Kabiyesi was not just a monarch seated on the throne of our forefathers, he was a father to the entire community, a moral compass, and a steady voice of wisdom in moments of uncertainty. His reign embodied peace, patience, humility, and an uncommon commitment to unity and progress.

Our late Kabiyesi took over the reign from our father HRH Abewojo Kazeem, the Obade of Iyamoye, and the transition was smooth, respectful, and the town witnessed peace and progress. We salute the courage of our late Obaro in fostering good relationships in the town. He was a father to all with a large heart to accommodate divergent views.

The late Obaro ruled with a rare blend of traditional authority and human compassion. He carried the crown with dignity and ruled with an open heart, always placing the welfare of his people above personal interest. Under his leadership, Iyamoye Kingdom witnessed strengthened traditional institutions, peaceful coexistence among its people, and renewed respect for our culture and values.

Kabiyesi was a bridge-builder—between generations, families, religions, and ideas. His palace was a place of counsel, reconciliation, and hope. He listened more than he spoke, judged fairly, and guided gently, leaving behind lessons that will continue to shape our community for generations to come.

To us, his children, he was a symbol of unity and reassurance. To visitors and well-wishers, he was a gracious host and worthy ambassador of Iyamoye Kingdom. His generosity, humility, and love for humanity remain indelibly etched in our hearts.

Though his physical presence is no longer with us, his legacy lives on—in the peace he nurtured, the unity he sustained, and the values he instilled in us as a people. Iyamoye has lost a great king, but we take solace in the assurance that he is in a better place.

May the Almighty Allah (SWT) forgive his shortcomings, accept his good deeds, and grant him Al-Jannatul Firdaus. May Allah also grant the royal family, the Iyamoye Community, the Ijumu Traditional Council, and the entire Kogi State Traditional Council the strength and fortitude to bear this great and irreparable loss. Adieu, Kabiyesi. Sleep well, our royal father. Your legacy will forever remain alive in Iyamoye community.

Thank you, and may God bless us all.

FARE THEE WELL KABIESI OBA IBRAHIM MOMOH, THE OBARO OF IYAMOYE

FROM CHIEF O J DARE

Before Kabiesi Oba Ibrahim Momoh became the Obaro of Iyamoye, our path had crossed in 1996-97 when he was appointed as the Honourable Supervisory in charge of Works Department in Ijumu Local Government Council under the Chairmanship of Hon Abiodun Samuel Ojo during the zero party System of the Era. Kabiesi as a Supervisor of Works brought Wisdom, humility, erudism, openness, integrity and transparency into the Ijumu Local Government particularly the Department of Works, Land and Housing.

These attributes were the Key Factors that drew me to Alhaji Ibrahim Momoh as he was known then. On daily basis, I am always with him in his office to learn and to drink from his fountain of wisdom.

Throughout my relationship with him as Honourable Supervisor, his method was quite different from the way and manner officers of the Local Government used to behave.

Kabiesi told me when I asked how he came to understand the workings of Local Government perfectly, that he had worked in Government establishment in Kaduna, in Kano and there is no department he had not served including the Treasury Department. From hence forth I took him as my Father and Friend on the Job.

Our relationship blossomed until he became the King of Iyamoye. Baba Personally told me that, it was based on his Character/good behavior that earned him the Position, thus he added AMUWAJOYE to his title Kabiesi Obaro Momoh, ruled with wisdom even though a Muslim, yet he was a Christian in his relationship with people of the opposite religion as well.

Within the Ijumu Obas, Oba Ibrahim Momoh's life shows transparency and near perfectness in his administration as a traditional Ruler and when he was appointed the Regent of Ijumu after the death of Olujumu Sunmanu, this transparency and openness of his was brought into the way and manner he administered Ijumu Kingdom before the appointment of the Current Olujumu.

Kabiesi Oba Ibrahim Momoh used resources available to the Traditional Council to Develop Ijumu Royal Palace. In Ijumu Area District, Kabiesi Oba Ibrahim Momoh was one of the Pillars upon which the District Stands. Time and space will not permit me to say much on our relationship particularly how Baba used to welcome me whenever I come in contact with him and in particular whenever I visit him in his Palace first as the information Officer of Ijumu LGA and later as National President Ijumu Development Movement and later as Director Local Government Administration and later as Acting Administrator of Ijumu LGA.

Kabiesi receives me always as a Son, as a Friend and Compatriot in the Ijumu Project.
SUN RE O KABIESI OBA IBRAHIM ADEMINUYI MOMOH FARE WELL.
